

Camilo Mejia & Coffee Strong Fundraiser

Friday November 7th at
First United Methodist Church of Tacoma
621 Tacoma Ave S, 7pm to 9pm

Come learn about the new G.I. Internet Cafe project named Coffee Strong, which is opening near the gates of Fort Lewis to outreach to active duty soldiers and vets.

Army Staff Sergeant Camilo Mejía became the new face of the antiwar movement in early 2004 when he applied for a discharge from as a conscientious objector. After serving in the Army for nearly nine years, he was the first known Iraq veteran to refuse to fight, citing moral concerns about the war and occupation.

His principled stand helped to rally the growing opposition and embolden his fellow soldiers.

Purchase $8 advance tickets online at givoice.org or $10 at the door. For more information at givoice.org

Camilo Mejia & Coffee Strong Fundraiser

Friday November 7th at
First United Methodist Church of Tacoma
621 Tacoma Ave S, 7pm to 9pm

Come learn about the new G.I. Internet Cafe project named Coffee Strong, which is opening near the gates of Fort Lewis to outreach to active duty soldiers and vets.

Army Staff Sergeant Camilo Mejía became the new face of the antiwar movement in early 2004 when he applied for a discharge from as a conscientious objector. After serving in the Army for nearly nine years, he was the first known Iraq veteran to refuse to fight, citing moral concerns about the war and occupation.

His principled stand helped to rally the growing opposition and embolden his fellow soldiers.

Purchase $8 advance tickets online at givoice.org or $10 at the door. For more information at givoice.org

Camilo Mejia & Coffee Strong Fundraiser

Friday November 7th at
First United Methodist Church of Tacoma
621 Tacoma Ave S, 7pm to 9pm

Come learn about the new G.I. Internet Cafe project named Coffee Strong, which is opening near the gates of Fort Lewis to outreach to active duty soldiers and vets.

Army Staff Sergeant Camilo Mejía became the new face of the antiwar movement in early 2004 when he applied for a discharge from as a conscientious objector. After serving in the Army for nearly nine years, he was the first known Iraq veteran to refuse to fight, citing moral concerns about the war and occupation.

His principled stand helped to rally the growing opposition and embolden his fellow soldiers.

Purchase $8 advance tickets online at givoice.org or $10 at the door. For more information at givoice.org

Camilo Mejia & Coffee Strong Fundraiser

Friday November 7th at
First United Methodist Church of Tacoma
621 Tacoma Ave S, 7pm to 9pm

Come learn about the new G.I. Internet Cafe project named Coffee Strong, which is opening near the gates of Fort Lewis to outreach to active duty soldiers and vets.

Army Staff Sergeant Camilo Mejía became the new face of the antiwar movement in early 2004 when he applied for a discharge from as a conscientious objector. After serving in the Army for nearly nine years, he was the first known Iraq veteran to refuse to fight, citing moral concerns about the war and occupation.

His principled stand helped to rally the growing opposition and embolden his fellow soldiers.

Purchase $8 advance tickets online at givoice.org or $10 at the door. For more information at givoice.org